

1

2

ABSTRACT OF THE DISCLOSURE

3

4

5

6

7

8

A shoe having a sole contour which follows a theoretically ideal stability plane as a basic concept, but which deviates outwardly therefrom to provide greater than natural stability. Thickness variations outwardly from the stability plane are disclosed, along with density variations to achieve a similar greater than natural stability.

0993663-112701